

URGENT: Inclusive Language Audit — Full Regression Fix

Status: FIX IN BUILD 103 (alongside other fixes)

The Problem

Despite having an `inclusive-language.md` memory file that clearly states the rules, the codebase still has 192 instances of "Black-owned" used as a generic default across web (53), API (47), and mobile (92). Many of these are in generic contexts where the business has NOT been verified as Black-owned and the user has NOT filtered for Black-owned specifically.

This is a recurring regression. The founder has flagged this on approximately 50% of builds. It must be fixed permanently this time with a regression test.

The Rule (Already in Your Memory — Enforce It)

| Context                                                                                | Correct Language                           |

| User explicitly filtered for Black-owned                                        | "Black-owned" ✓                            |
| Discussing specifically Black history or culture (Parrish Street, Farish Street, etc.) | "Black-owned" ✓                            |
| Generic discovery prompts, platform defaults, search copy                       | "minority-owned" or "community businesses" |
| Generic platform audience descriptors                                           | "minorities" or "the melanated diaspora"   |
| Waitlist form, onboarding, marketing copy                                       | "minority-owned" or "community business"   |

| Business dashboard generic copy                                                 | "minority-owned" or "community-verified"   |

EXCEPTIONS — Do NOT Change These

The following use "Black-owned" correctly (referring to verified identity, historical fact, or cultural context):

- `kinfolk.ts` line 170: "Parrish Street — 'Black Wall Street of Durham'" (historical reference)
- `kinfolk.ts` line 441: "Farish Street...Black-owned businesses" (historical reference)
- `kinfolk.ts` line 460: "Parrish Street...Black-owned banks" (historical reference)
- `city-spotlight.tsx` line 19: Atlanta description mentioning "Black-owned businesses" alongside "Black millionaires" and "HBCUs" (city-specific cultural context about Atlanta specifically)
- `explore.tsx` ownership tags: "black-owned" as a filter ID (this is a category tag, not generic copy)
- Any instance where a SPECIFIC VERIFIED business is being described using its actual ownership type

REGRESSION PREVENTION

After fixing all instances, implement ONE of these:

Option A (preferred): Automated lint rule

Add a custom ESLint rule or grep-based CI check that flags any new instance of "Black-owned" in generic contexts (not inside a conditional that checks `business.ownershipType === 'black-owned'` ).

Option B: Pre-commit hook

Bash

.husky/pre-commit or similar
BLACKOWNED_COUNT=$(grep -rn "Black-owned" artifacts/web/src artifacts/mobile/ap if [ "$BLACKOWNED_COUNT" -gt 5 ]; then echo "⚠ Found $BLACKOWNED_COUNT generic 'Black-owned' instances. Check incl

exit 1

Option C: Memory file enforcement

Add to `.agents/memory/inclusive-language.md` :

Plain Text

Verification Required

After fixing, provide:

- `grep -rn "Black-owned" artifacts/ | grep -v node_modules | grep -v dist/ | grep -v .git/ | grep -v ".agents/" | wc -l` — should be significantly reduced (only historical/contextual uses remain)
- Screenshot of the waitlist form showing the corrected toggle text
- Screenshot of the business insight "Add a business" flow showing corrected language
- Confirm which regression prevention method was implemented (A, B, or C)
- List of remaining "Black-owned" instances with justification for why each one stays (should all be historical references or verified-ownership conditionals)
